

THANKS, I HAD CANCER

Hosted by two younger cancer survivors and Dear Jack retreat alums—one a breast cancer survivor (Tamara) and the other a tongue and lung cancer survivor (Sarah)—Thanks, I Had Cancer gets into the messy, complicated, surprising, and sometimes genuinely funny reality of figuring out life after cancer.

Thanks, I Had Cancer is currently looking for guests who can bring expertise, lived experience, or a perspective that can help unpack what really happens after cancer treatment ends. Sound like you? Tamara and Sarah would love to have you join the conversation. And, if you're not ready to share on the pod, they'd love to hear from you anyway. Name and email address are NOT required.

Scan the QR code to tell them more about yourself or what you want to hear and they'll be in touch!
